HIPPA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

- As required or permitted by law as described above
- As part of a limited data set with direct identifiers removed

Any request for this list must be made in writing to the Privacy Officer, Dr. Hoeldtke, at the address listed below. Your request must state the time for which you want the list. The time may not be longer than six years and may not begin before April 14, 2003. The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. We will charge you a fee for additional requests in the same period.

Right to Ask for Limits on the Use and Sharing of Your Medical Information: You have the right to ask that we limit our use or sharing of information about you for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to ask us to limit the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care like a family member or friend. For example, you could ask that we not share information about a procedure you had. We reserve the right to accept or reject your request. Generally, we will not accept restrictions for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We will notify you if we do not agree to your request. If we do agree, our agreement must be in writing, and we will comply with the restriction unless the information is needed to provide emergency treatment for you. We are allowed to end the restriction if we tell you. If we end the restriction, it will only affect medical information that was created or received after we notify you.

You must submit your request to restrict the use and sharing of your medical information in writing to the Privacy Officer at the address listed at the end of the Notice. In your request, you must tell us (1) what information you want to limit (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure, or both and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply.

Right to Ask for Confidential Communications: You have the right to ask us to communicate with you in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we contact you only at work or at a post office box. You must make your request in writing to the Privacy Officer at the address given at the end of the Notice. You do not need to tell us the reason for your request. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. You will also be required to tell us what address to send bills to for payment. We will accept all reasonable requests. However, if we are unable to contact you using the requested way or locations, we may contact you using any information we have.

Right to Get a Paper Copy of This Notice: You have the right to get a paper copy of this Notice, even if you have agreed to receive this Notice electronically. You may get a copy at any of our facilities, by contacting the Privacy Officer at the number below.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We have the right to change this Notice at any time. Any changes could apply to medical information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. The effective date of this Notice is on the first page.

HOW TO ASK A QUESTION OR REPORT A COMPLAINT

If you have questions about this notice or want to talk about a problem without filing a formal complaint, please contact the Privacy Officer at 731-541-6939. The Privacy Officer is Dr. Nathan Hoeldtke. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a written complaint with us. Please send it to the MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES Privacy Officer at the address listed below. You may also file a complaint to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services.

You will not be treated differently for filing a complaint.

- A law enforcement official if you are under the custody of the police or other law enforcement officials

OTHER USES OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION

We will not use or share your medical information for reasons other than those described about without your written consent. For example, you may want us to give medical information to your employer or to your child's school. We will share your medical information for purposes like this only if you give your written approval. You may revoke the approval in writing at any time, but we cannot take back any medical information that has already been shared with your approval.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION

The records we create and maintain using your medical information belong to MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES, but you have the following rights:

Right to Review and Get a Copy of Your Medical Information: You have the right to look at and get a copy of your medical information, including billing records. You must first make your request in writing to the address provided at the end of this Notice. We may charge a fee to cover copying, mailing and other costs and supplies used to respond to your request. We may deny your request for certain information in very limited cases. If we deny your request, we will give you the reason for the denial in writing. In some cases, you may request that the denial be reviewed by a licensed health care professional chosen by MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES.

Right to Ask for a Change of Your Medical Information: If you think our information about you is not correct or not complete, you may ask us to correct the record by writing to the address listed at the end of this Notice. Your written request must give the reason you ask for a correction. If we accept your request, we will tell you we agree and add the correction. We cannot take anything out of the record. We can add new information to complete or correct the existing information. With your help, we will notify others who have the incorrect or incomplete medical information. If we deny your request, we will tell you in writing the reasons. If we deny your request, you have the right to submit a written statement that tells what you believe is incorrect or is missing. We will add your written statement to your records and include it whenever we share the part of your medical record that your written statement relates to.

Right to Ask for an Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request a list of when your medical information was shared without your written consent.

This list will not include uses or disclosures:

- To carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations
- To you or your personal representative
- To your family members or friends who are involved in your care

HIPPA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

We may share your medical information with your health plan so your health plan will pay for care you received at MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES, or obtain prior approval for a procedure, or to allow your health plan to review your records to make sure they have paid the correct amount to MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES. We may also share your information with a collection agency when needed to collect an overdue payment.

Health Care Operations: We may use and share information about you for business tasks necessary to operate MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES. Whenever practical we may remove information that identifies you. For example, we may use or share your medical information:

- To comply with laws and regulations
- For health care and education
- To perform credentialing, licensure, certifications, and accreditation functions
- To improve our care and service
- For our budgeting and planning
- For legal services and compliance programs
- To conduct audits
- To maintain computer systems
- To evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you
- To make decisions about additional services MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES should offer
- To do patient satisfaction surveys
- To bill and collect payment

When information is shared with outside parties (called "business associates") who perform these tasks on behalf of MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES, the business associates are also required to protect and restrict use of your medical information.

Contacting You About Appointments, Insurance and Other Matters: We may contact you by mail, phone or email about appointments, registration questions, insurance updates, billing or payment matters, test results, to follow up about care received, or ask about the quality of the services we have provided to you. We may leave voice mail messages at the telephone number you provided us.

Treatment Alternatives or Health News and Services: We may use or share your information to inform you about treatment options or health related products or services that may interest you.

Family Members and Friends Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care: We may share information about you with family members and friends who are involved in your care or payment for your care. Whenever possible, we will allow you to tell us who you would like to be involved in your care. However, in emergencies or other situations in which you are unable to tell us who to share information with, we will use our best judgement and share only information that others need to know. We may also share information about you with a public or private agency during a disaster so the agency can help contact your family or friends about your location and tell them how you are doing.

To Stop a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: When necessary to prevent a serious and urgent threat to the health and safety of you or someone else, we may share your medical information.

Military and Veterans: If you are a member of the armed forces, we may share your medical information with the military as authorized or required by law. We may also release information about foreign military personnel to the proper foreign military authority.

Workers' Compensation: We may share medical information about you with those who need it to provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

Health Oversight Activities and Public Health Reporting: We may share information with health oversight agencies for activities like audits, investigations, inspections, and review of requirements to obtain a license. We may also share your medical information to file reports with state public health authorities. Some examples of the reasons for these reports are:

- To prevent or control disease and injuries
- To report events such as births and deaths
- To report reactions to medications or problems with products

HIPPA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

Notice of Privacy Practices Effective June 24, 2013

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

If you have any questions about this Notice of Privacy, please ask a member of the staff where you receive health care services. You may also contact our Privacy Officer (the Practice Manager) at 731-541-6939. Contact information is provided at the end of the Notice.

MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES, PLC IS COMMITTED TO YOUR PRIVACY

At Mid-South Perinatal Associates, we keep medical information about you to help us provided your care and to meet legal requirements. We also understand that your medical information is private. The law requires us to:

- Protect your medical information
- Give you this Notice

- Follow the terms of the Notice

DEFINITION OF TERMS

In this document we will use words that will have the following meaning:

- "Notice" is used to refer to the Notice of Privacy Practices
- "MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES" means Mid-South Perinatal Associates, together with its medical staff and affiliated organizations listed at the end of this Notice
- "We," "our" or "us" means one or more of MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES' licensed providers and staff
- "You" means the patient who is the subject of the medical information
- "Medical information" includes all paper and electronic records of your care that identify you and relate to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition including information about payment and billing for your health care services
- "We" means sharing or using your medical information with MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES
- "Share" or "disclose" means to release, give access to, or provide your medical information to someone outside MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES

HOW WE MAY USE AND SHARE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES and its medical staff, employed healthcare professionals including physicians, nurses, care partners, other employees, trainees and students, volunteers and business associates follow the terms of the Notice. MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES uses electronic record systems to coordinate your care more efficiently and safely across many individuals and locations. Physical and technical safeguards are used to protect the information in these systems and MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES also uses policies and training to restrict use of your information to only those who need it to do their job.

Doctors and other people who are not employed by MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES may share information about you with MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES employees to provide your health care. The non-MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES caregivers may also give you their notices that describe their privacy practices for information they maintain outside of MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES.

All these hospitals, clinics, doctors and other caregivers, programs and services may share your medical information with each other for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes. The general ways that we can use and share your information are described below.

Treatment: We may use and share your medical information to provide you with health care services. For example, your medical information may be provided to your ob/gyn to further your treatment. We may also share medical information about you to provide you with items and services such as medicine, lab tests and x-rays and to make arrangement for transportation, home care, medical device, or equipment experts, or with community agencies and family members. This medical information may be shared when needed to plan or provide your care.

Payment: We may use and share your information so that MID-SOUTH PERINATAL ASSOCIATES or other health care providers that have provided services to you, such as an ambulance company, may bill and collect payment for those services.
